

How to Place Holds for ECU Libraries' Materials

Use the Place Hold feature in the Catalog to have materials pulled and held at the Circulation desk for you or delivered to another ECU library for you, or to have checked out items currently checked out to another person held for you upon their return. Faculty and staff may have materials delivered to their on-campus offices using this service, too.

1. Go to ECU Libraries' Catalog (<https://librarycatalog.ecu.edu/>), enter your search terms, and click Search (see orange circle below). If you need help searching, visit Ask a Librarian (<https://library.ecu.edu/services/ask-a-librarian/>) or the FAQ entry for tips on how to search the Catalog (<https://libanswers.ecu.edu/faq/16351>).

The screenshot shows the ECU Libraries Library Catalog interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ECU Libraries logo, a clock icon for 'Hours', a dropdown for 'Libraries & Collections', and a 'Get Help' link. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with 'Library Catalog' in large yellow text, and links for 'Browse', 'Course Reserves', 'More', and 'My Account'. The main content area is titled 'Find materials by' and features a sidebar with various filters: Location (Joyner Library: 2,841,029; Music Library: 1,024,564; Laupus Library: 979,003), Format, Publication Date, Call Number, Collection, Language, Genre, and Era. To the right of the sidebar is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'All Fields' and a 'Search...' input field, which is circled in orange. A 'Search' button with a magnifying glass icon is to the right of the search bar, and a link for 'Advanced Search' is below it. Below the search bar is a section titled 'Some of our New Titles' featuring four book covers: 'Understanding Human Differences' by Kent L. Koppelman, 'Maritime and Underwater Cultural Heritage Management on the Historic and Arabian Trade Routes' by Robert Parthenios and Jonathan Sharfman, 'The Verbally Abusive Relationship: How to Recognize It and How to Respond' by Patricia Evans, and 'Ukraine and Russia: From Civilized Divorce to Uncivil War' by Paul D'Anieri.
