

Newbery Honor Books Bibliography

The Newbery Honor books are awarded annually along with a Newbery Medal winner by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association. The Newbery award was named for eighteenth-century British bookseller John Newbery.

Titles in the Teaching Resources Center are cataloged with Dewey call numbers and are preceded by Curric. Please ask someone at the Teaching Resources Service Desk if you need any assistance.

Lexile Score	Year	Title Information	Call Number
N/A	2018	Barnes, Derrick. Crown: An Ode to the Fresh Cut . Chicago: Bolden, 2017. Celebrates the magnificent feeling that comes from walking out of a barber shop with newly-cut hair.	E B261C
HL720L		Reynolds, Jason. Long Way Down . New York: Atheneum, 2017. There are three rules in the neighborhood: Don't cry; Don't snitch; Get revenge. Will takes his dead brother Shawn's gun, and gets in the elevator on the 7th floor. As the elevator stops on each floor, someone connected to Shawn gets on. Someone already dead. Dead by teenage gun violence. And each has something to share with Will.	F R3352L
680L		Watson, Renée. Piecing Me Together . New York: Bloomsbury, 2017. Jade believes she must get out of her poor neighborhood if she's ever going to succeed. Her mother tells her to take advantage of every opportunity that comes her way. And Jade has: every day she rides the bus away from her friends and to the private school	F W337P

where she feels like an outsider, but where she has plenty of opportunities. But some opportunities she doesn't really welcome, like an invitation to join Women to Women, a mentorship program for "at-risk" girls. Just because her mentor is black and graduated from the same high school doesn't mean she understands where Jade is coming from. She's tired of being singled out as someone who needs help, someone people want to fix. Jade wants to speak, to create, to express her joys and sorrows, her pain and her hope. Maybe there are some things she could show other women about understanding the world and finding ways to be real, to make a difference.
